

Control Freak

Saul Williams

I know that you've
Woken up and found yourself
Within a world of questions
Where the answers come and go

And I know you don't Wanna sit around and hear
No asinine suggestions
When the truth just can't be told

But if I may, I got a
Thing or two to say, although the Answers are not clear there's not a
Thing that you should fear because the Answers to it all whether things
Rise or when they fall you'll find the Truth remains the same
And that truth is that God is change

Hey you
You can talk about it, talk about it
But you can't control your destiny
I think that God is testing me
Hey you
You can talk about it, talk about it
But you can't control your destiny
You just might fail successfully

I'm alone
And I thought God created you for me
How could it be that it can't be?
So alone
And I don't know what to do with myself
I don't know what I would do

Hey you
I thought that you were my destiny
Girl, I thought we were meant to be
Can't I choose what is best for me?
Hey you
I thought you were my destiny
Girl, I thought we were meant to be
Don't I know what is best for me?

Hey you
You can talk about it, talk about it
But you can't control your destiny
I think that God is testing me
Hey you
You can talk about it, talk about it
But you can't control your destiny
You just might fail successfully

You can't control your destiny
You can't control your destiny
You can't control

Hey you
You can talk about it, talk about it
But you can't control your destiny
I think that God is testing me
Hey you
You can talk about it, talk about it
But you can't control your destiny
You just might fail successfully
Hey you
You can talk about it, talk about it
You can talk about it, talk about it
You can talk about it, talk about it
Hey you
You can talk about it, talk about it
You can talk about it, talk about it
You can talk about it, talk about it
