

No Face

Savages

Different shapes, on your face
Which one is your true self
Safe sex, safe smile
Waiting for the day you cry

Coz you have no face, you have no face
You, have, No Face
You have no face, you have no face
You, have, no, face

Repeat every word I say
Miming another boring day
I have better things to do
Now you're here I must get rid of you

Coz you have no face, you have no face
You have, No face
You have no Face, you have no face
You, have, no face

You argue everything
Like a bird, who's never learn to sing
Oh darling, are you free when doubt
Oh darling, don't worry about,
Breaking my heart

Don't worry about
Breaking my heart
Don't worry about
Breaking my heart

Don't worry about breaking my heart
Far bigger things will fall apart
Don't worry about breaking my heart
Oh Darling, are you free when you doubt

Don't worry about
Breaking my heart
Don't worry about
Breaking my heart

Coz you have no face, you have no face
You. have. no face
You have no face, you have no face
You, have, no face
