

Hot Time in Delaware

Saves the Day

Ever think we should try to re-establish that connection that we made during last summer's days?
Maybe I should be subtle or maybe I should be more pure but I think we should talk about what we were going through and I wonder what it would be like if we had kept up that aversion and maybe kept listing all the people that we hated but isn't it ironic how you still have ideals and I still have nothing?
and now I'm hoping that you'll change so we can see straight so me day.
