

Morning in the Moonlight

Saves the Day

Im all out of time watching a swaying tide tomorrow has died yes no one gets out alive

The moonlight in the morning sun sends shivers over my skin my memories are slowly slippin'
and im sailing against the wind

Madness ensues swimmin in ocean blues the dream drippin sky covers my insides

and im sailing against the wind
