

Say You'll Never Leave

Saves the Day

Hammer nails into my eyes now I'll never notice when you're staring at the ground wishing that you didn't know what I'm really thinking you won't even look at me now

Say you'll never leave, please this war inside my mind is killing me

See myself in shredded skin sew my lips together so I won't have to say a word what I never meant to say I wish I could erase it make it right again some day

Say you'll never leave, please
this war inside my mind is killing me

I'll cut out my throat and I'll eat it raw and drown in the blood as it fills my lungs

Say you'll never leave, please
this war inside my mind is killing me it's killing me
it's killing me
