

Crawling, all alone along the floor,
Woke up this morning,
with a trail of teeth under the door,
I took a wrench to my chest, cracked all my ribs, let the blood run all over my hands

I can't stand my own face anymore,
The mirror is on the floor,
Shattered a million eyes all crying please,
Please don't forget about me

You say I'm gonna break up,
Drive my car into a wall,
No they're never gonna wake up,
And wonder why they didn't care
After I pull out my tongue,
Tie it round my neck,
Hang myself alone in the dark

I can't stand my own face anymore,
The mirror is on the floor,
Shattered a million eyes all crying please,
Please don't forget about me
(Pull out my tongue tie it round my neck)
Please don't forget about me
(Hang myself alone in the dark)
(Pull out my tongue tie it round my neck)
Please don't forget about me
(Hang myself alone in the dark)

I can't stand my own face anymore,
The mirror is on the floor,
Shattered a million eyes all crying please,
Please don't forget about me
