

Sometimes, New Jersey

Saves the Day

I called you up to see if maybe we could hang out and I told you I was nervous and feeling lonely but I bit my lip and you said yes and I thought of how beautiful the night would be and I thought maybe we could drive around talking about your to wn or we could just stay at home and I could win over acting cool just like real romance.
