

Xenophobic Blind Left Hook

Saves the Day

We were there
They were there
They were drunk

We didn't think it could happen
No one was thinking at all
When suddenly outta nowhere
We noticed something was wrong
Outta the corner of my eye
I saw him stumble inside
He didn't bleed it was raining
They left before we could fight

He said someone call the cops
I caught a xenophobic blind left hook
Look I've got a purple eye as well
They can all go to hell

They were gone
We were gone
Out the door

To catch a glimpse of the back plates
Red lights were all that we saw
As they took off in the twilight
We thought of breaking the law
It might make some people wonder
What is the point of it all
Fly off the handle and light out
Lash out to even the score

But we stopped to call the cops
He caught a xenophobic blind left hook
Look he's got a broken nose as well
They can all go to hell

They can all go to hell
They will all go to hell

It was hot
In the back
Of the car

On our way
To the south
Side of town

Where we spent
A night in
The ER

We didn't think it could happen
But then again who can tell
When will the oceans between us
Dry up and all will be well

Well for now we'll call the cops

Look he's got a broken heart as well

They can all go to hell
They will all go to hell
