

Bringing Down the Giant

Saving Abel

Bringing down the giant. Oh.

I hit the wall I got back up and dusted off.

I'm past the pain and I'm taking back all that I lost,

I'm going to kick you off the throne hang your crown

Up on the wall, yeah your glory days are gone gone

Gone. Yeah I'm bringing down the giant I won't sit

Here undecided. When your world comes crashing down

I'll remind you I'm the one who's laughing loud in

You face yeah yeah your karma's coming back here to

Find you this is going to get a little violent yeah

I'm bringing down bringing down the giant.

Too many lies bound up inside your bound to fall,

Standing face to face your not so big after all take

Your bow you had your shot looking down while your

On top now your glory days are gone gone gone yeah

I'm bringing down the giant I won't sit here undecided

(Chorus). (Chorus repeat).

I'm the one who's laughing loud in your face,

Yeah your karma's coming back here to find you things

Are going to get a little violent yeah I'm bringing Down bringing down the giant.
