

Stupid Girl (Only in Hollywood)

Saving Abel

When the lights hit your eyes at night
You're hypnotized
Don't be a fool for the wolves in disguise
You're not a stupid girl

The grammar in your head
Is playing dead
Sugar tongue rolling off your lips whispering
You're not a stupid girl

'Cause your climbing up the list
Pretty little, box office hit and miss

You always kiss before you're kissed
You're not a stupid girl
You always wanna leave before you're left
You're not a stupid girl

You're never gonna be the same
'Cause you're flirting with fame in the city of angels
They're calling your name only in Hollywood
Yeah, only in Hollywood

I'm sorry for all the clouds in your life
You always were the kind
Who loved the rainy nights
You're not a stupid girl

I think you only want
What you think you can't have
You lie so much and you believe your elf
You're not a stupid girl

'Cause your climbing up the list
Pretty little, box office hit and miss

You always kiss before you're kissed
You're not a stupid girl
You're not a stupid girl

You're never gonna be the same
'Cause you're flirting with fame in the city of angels
They're calling your name only in Hollywood
Yeah, only in Hollywood, aye, yeah

Climbing up the list
Pretty little, box office hit and miss

You always kiss before you're kissed
You're not a stupid girl
You're not a stupid girl

You're never gonna be the same
'Cause you're flirting with fame in the city of angels
They're calling your name only in Hollywood

Yeah, only in Hollywood, aye

You're flirting with fame in the city of angels
They're calling your name only in Hollywood
