

Better Day

Saving Jane

I have been asleep so long now
All locked up without a key
I have tapped my feet impatient
For a change to come to me
I've been hanging my hair
Outside this tower
Waiting for a savior
When all along I had the power to save myself
And I can tell

It's gonna be a better day
I think I'm gonna be okay
Got a little air to breathe
It's alright with me
I got a little light to shine
You can't take what's mine
I've been down so low
Nowhere but up to go
So go ahead, bring on the rain
It's gonna be a better day

Every princess has a castle
Some kind of honor to defend
I would rather fight my battlewounds
Than hide behind a thousand men
I've been hanging my hair
Outside of this tower
Waiting for a savior
When all along, I had the power to save myself
And I can tell

It's gonna be a better day
I think I'm gonna be okay
Got a little air to breathe
It's alright with me
I got a little light to shine
You can't take what's mine
I've been down so low
Nowhere but up to go
So go ahead, bring on the rain
It's gonna be a better day

I gotta make my own luck
I gotta find my own way
I gotta see that there is more to life than just existing
I wanna be living

It's gonna be a better day
I think I'm gonna be okay
Got a little air to breathe
It's alright with me
I've been down so low
Nowhere but up to go
