

Born Into Pain

Savoy Brown

Well, I'm tired of the city
The hard living ain't my game
I'm going back to the country
I'm going back from where I came
Nothing but bad luck
I was born into pain

I'm broken-hearted
I'm left out in the rain
I'm broken-hearted
I'm riding on the nowhere train
Nothing but bad luck
I was born into pain

I'm broken-hearted
I'm left out in the rain
I'm broken-hearted
I'm riding on the nowhere train
Nothing but bad luck
I was born into pain

Well, I'm tired of the city
The hard living ain't my game
I'm going back to the country
I'm going back from where I came
Nothing but bad luck
I was born into pain
