

Little Girl

Savoy Brown

Yes, I've got a little girl just grown 18 years old
Yes, I've got a little girl just grown 18 years old
Well I love my baby to my heart and soul
I love the way she kiss, she loves me all the time
I love the way she kiss, she loves me all the time
You know pretty little girl, can't get her offa my mind

She got great big pretty lips, they just shine like a pearl
Great big pretty lips, they just shine like a pearl
And if you see her, man, she's out of this world.
