

Shot Down By Love

Savoy Brown

Come on longer, calling the love
Said I think I'm going this
I'm in heart breakup babe
Trying to hold on anyway could be my last

I've been shot down by love straight to heart
Shot down by love
It's tearing me apart, oh, it's tearing me apart

Call up the army, call the police
Get the results, see the truth
Girl, you're always playing 'In love and war'
But I can't stand losing you

I've been shot down by love straight to heart
Shot down by love, it's tearing me apart
Yeah, it's tearing me apart
Get it

Still I pay the price for loving you
Well, the price I had to pay
You tell the name it's over and done
There's nothing more to say

I've been shot down by love straight to heart
Shot down by love
It's tearing me apart, oh, it's tearing me apart

Looks like I've been shot down by love straight to heart
Shot down by love
It's tearing me apart
Yeah, it's tearing me apart

How could you do it, baby?
Yeah, it's tearing me apart
Oh, come on, come on
Come on, come on, on
