Troubled By These Days And Times

Raymond-Chrysalis Music Ltd.
Well I'm troubled, yes I'm troubled
Well I'm troubled by these days and times
Well I'm troubled, yes I'm troubled
You know I'm troubled by these days and times

When fortune smiles on me, it's leaving me behind Everybody knows that fate can be so unkind Don't wanna kick myself for the rest of my life If that's the way it's gotta be I guess it's alright

Well I'm worried, yes I'm worried I'm worried 'bout what's gonna come Well I'm worried, oh Lord I'm worried I'm worried 'bout the things I've done

No use in thinking 'bout what's right or wrong Caring for nothing than yourself in so long Should I regret the years I let go by Living for the day and never wondering why

Well I'm troubled, yes I'm troubled
Well I'm troubled by these days and times
Well I'm troubled, oh Lord I'm troubled
You know I'm troubled by these days and times

When fortune smiles on me, it's leaving me behind Everybody knows that fate can be so unkind Don't wanna kick myself for the rest of my life If that's the way it's gotta be I guess it's alright
