

My Baby's Gone

Sawyer Brown

Woke up this morning and the sun refused to shine
Looked everywhere tryin' to find that gal of mine
I just found an ice cold pilow layin' by me side

Well the moon is down but it still ain't dawn and the world is dark and my baby's gone

Looked out the window and I could not help but cry
She left me all alone and never said goodbye
She even took the golden sunlight from my sky

I sit here and wonder why she left me
Just try to think what I done wrong
I stay in the darkness of this lonely room

Woke up this morning and the sun refused to shine
Looked everywhere tryin' to find that gal of mine
I just found an ice cold pilow layin' by me side

Well there ain't no moonlight
There ain't no starlight
There ain't no sunlight
My baby's gone
