It was back in '79 When we rode the mighty tide It swept across the world We came together

We never stood alone
Wherever we did roam
This legacy of rock
Would last forever, yeah

R: Show me your hands
Show me your hands
Raise up your hands
Deliver me

Defenders of the faith
To you this vow we make
When our back's against the wall
We'll not surrender

You may be young or old There's no difference at all Just raise your glasses high And sing our song

R: (2x)

It was back in '79 When we rode the mighty tide The music will go on And never die
