

Hangover Song

Say Anything

I mean nothing, only nothing
There's nothing I can do about that
I've accepted my place in the back
This is not the place or time to snap
I awaken to the bacon, she's preparing for me in the pan
But I'm spinning
My head cannot stand effects from when the night began

And I screw my life up evermore as I puke my lungs out on the floor
And I fuck my life up evermore as I shit my heart out on the floor
