

A Kiss To Make It Better

Say Hi To Your Mom

Bandages are temporary
And besides this kind of wound
Is much more contemporary
Then the sort we're all used to
She sat next to me on the train
From new york city to Someplace where the snow is dreary
And people spend whole lots to

Get a kiss to make it better
They get a kiss to make it better
They get a kiss to make it better
They get a kiss to make it better

She was eating something I'm sure
They don't make books on tape for
And our feet accidentally touched
On the carpeted floor
No use getting snooty
Once you've gotten all the kinks out
So I gave her my number
In case she wanted to make out

I'll get a kiss to make it better
I'll get a kiss to make it better
I'll get a kiss to make it better
I'll get a kiss to make it better
