

Golden Child

Say Lou Lou

They're gonna cut you to the core
Gonna try to cool you down (down)
And they will shame you when you flirt
But they'll hate it when you frown
(Don't you frown)

But there's fire burning in your bones tonight
Desire hiding in your glowing eyes
Look through the glass to the other side

I see you standing where I used to be
I feel you frozen when you could be free
Follow me, endlessly

Golden child (golden child)
Let your horses run wild (let your horses run wild)

They'll find a way to keep control
They'll try to own you with an ancient glance (glance)
They're gonna set you into stone
And then I bet they'll ask why don't you dance

But there's fire burning in your bones tonight
Desire hiding in your glowing eyes
Look through the glass to the other side

I see you standing where I used to be
I feel you frozen when you could be free
Follow me, endlessly

Golden child (golden child)
Let your horses run wild (let your horses run wild)

I see you standing where I used to be
Golden child, won't you come with me?
I feel you frozen when you could be free
Golden child, won't you come with me?

Golden child (golden child)
Let your horses run wild (let your horses run wild)

Fire burning in your bones tonight
Look through the glass to the other side
(Golden child)
Fire burning in your bones tonight
Look through the glass to the other side
(Golden child)
