

Take Me Home

SayWeCanFly

I hear your voice
And I feel your aura
And it chills me to the bone
Makes me miss when I wasn't alone
You will always be the gift that's missing from beneath my Christmas tree
I've set it on fire it will burn until you
Take me, take me home
I miss everything about you and I'm cold

I kissed an angel
Made of snow and ice but it wasn't the same as having your lips
, having your lips against mine
And you're the only reason that I want to do my best
To get rid of my fear of catching cold and do the rest
Of everything I know that I was made to do
And maybe someday, maybe someday you will
Take me, take me home
I missed everything about you and I'm cold
So baby please take me, take me home
I miss everything about you and I'm cold

Take me, take me home
I miss everything about you and I'm cold
