

Jesus Saves

Scanners

Each picture tells a story
We've seen it all before
It's either death or glory
A casualty of war

It's a shame
We all have a sell-by date
Shop where Jesus saves

The weight of your ambition
Has worn your carpet thin
With no cure for your condition
So far under you skin

It's a shame
We all have a sell-by date
Shop where Jesus saves

And your so nice, and your so sweet
You love your life, its so complete,
Your perfect hair and perfect teeth
We follow you, you're our belief
But you look shocked and so surprised
And still your shot on your good side
But I know you, you made the call
And now you rule, God help us all (2x)
