

Sleepwalking Life

Scanners

I've got to find some feeling in my skin and bones (I've got to find some feeling that I've never known) I can't hide hide hide when I'm close to home (I can't run for cover when I'm close to home)

There's no day like tomorrow there's no time like today (There's no time the present yeah that's what they say) There's no joy only sorrow when you choose to escape (There's no joy only sorrow yeah we need to get away)

Sometimes I climb high above the streets and signs Clean air, sunshine, how strange this feeling fine Wake me, early, I don't want to waste the day Come now, lets go on escape

Don't look down Don't look down

If you want to survive you better have thick skin (If you want to survive yeah you can't give in) You'd better open up you better let love in (You better open up your mind and let love in)

Sometimes I climb high above the streets and signs Clean air, sunshine, how strange this feeling fine Wake me, early, I don't want to waste the day Come now, lets go on escape

And everyone's a winner now Just come on down it's a sleepwalking life Raise your hands together now You can't think once how will you ever think twice

And everyone is happy now So where's that smile it's a sleeping walking life And if you fall to pieces now You can't think once how will you ever think twice
