

Sellout

Scarface

It's been a long time coming but now I'm back at it
Flipping the script, from balling back to gansta rap classics
You know that shit that hit the hood and upset it
If real niggas respect it, the squares gon' rep it
I done came in here to bring it to you
The uncut version of ganstarism with the nickel painted Ruger
Quick to cock it on you, spark light in your eyes
The unexpected is happening to you now nigga, surprise!
Who is it? (Face, marchin', mobbin')
You said it one more time (Face Mob)
What else? (we keep you)
Now motherfuckers lay it down
The ruler's back, cause it's too many pussies out here making bullshit records and ruining rap
I gotta check this whole game; niggas out here listening to these record label bitches instead of doing they thing
I'm a real nigga, a street nigga till it's done with
And I could never let you talk me into dumb shit
Like selling out to move a few more units
Just keep me in the ghetto cause the hood stay truest
You fuck around and cross the other side of the track
Catch you a brick then realize that you can't come back
I'ma stick to the facts
Fuck it if I don't go two
The homies know that Face stay true
And though I've got more muscle, my sounds don't change
Been the same ever since I stepped in the game
Now, this is for these niggas switchin' they shit
Prostituting theyselves, trying to get them a hit
Suck a dick

You a sellout nigga
Bow down nigga before they fuck around and find you face down in the river
Talk down nigga and I'ma bust you in your mouth nigga
Show 'em you a foul ass nigga
You a sellout nigga and I'ma bust you in your mouth nigga
Show 'em you a foul ass nigga

Fo sho I talk a lot of shit but you can bet that I'm the nigga
Out here backing it up, while you acting it up
I can prove you ain't as real as what you claiming to be
You the king on your block, but you ain't shit in DC
You ain't shit off in the city of Chi
You ain't shit off in the Do It or Die
They want to skin you alive
Out here talking like you carrying arms
We don't shoot at motherfuckers, we done flipped the script to carrying bomb s
I can end it for niggas out here who's hard in the booth
Any city I can hit the hood cause Scar is the truth
I know so much about these streets that I can walk them asleep
You can't tell me shit about your hood, I walked on your beat
I know your whole life story, plus I've seen for myself
You got caught smoking dope, that's why they sent you to jail
Had you locked up with wet backs, only real niggas suffer set backs 90 days and I ain't goin' to respect that
And you can sniff a snitch a mile away

Fuck him in his ass and feed him dick, a pound a day

You a sellout nigga

Bow down nigga before they fuck around and find you face down in the river

Talk down nigga and I'ma bust you in your mouth nigga

Show 'em you a foul ass nigga

(2x)

I've got niggas I was raised with who know who I am

Lil' Brad from out of South Acres, prone for scams

Never ducked the motherfucker, I was down for the dirt

Got respect from older cats cause I was down for the work

When Fondren had its Great Skate I'd roll to the club

Drunk off the bird with thumbtack holes in my glove

Stood in the corner waiting for bullshit to jump

And in the event it jumped you saw a fool get stomped

There it is, can't get this shit no realer than that

Had a super boxing game, but now I'm peeling your cap

I done been in fist fights with niggas twice my size

Got an incredible record, 27 and 5

And the 5 losses I got, I had to redeem 'em

So he had to fight me everytime I seen him

Ain't no pussy in me, I've been for real before this rap shit

I study MCs, that's how I know you hoes is plastic

So-a, shake your ass and I'ma tell 'em the truth

Fabricate your bumps and bruises homey, do what you do

Just remember who for real when they tell you they real

I survived the game of life nigga, fuck some skills

You a sellout nigga

Bow down nigga before they fuck around and find you face down in the river

Talk down nigga and I'ma bust you in your mouth nigga

Show 'em you a foul ass nigga
