

Florescent Sunshine

Scarlet

Army ants living a little white lie

A slave to the wage and the nine to five
I want the monotony
I need the anonymity

It's my personal jesus
My job defines who I am

It's the evolution of man
My net worth tells me who I am

Take it all and beg for more
This is something you can't understand...anymore
We're all drugged monkeys

Content with our role

We're all porn junkies
Looking for a hole
