

I Wanna Be Free

Scarlet

Ever felt your hands and feet are bound?
Frozen from your head to your waist down
All that's left to wander is your mind
'Cos all you let me do is fantasize
I wanna be free to be with him
I wanna be free to tell you everything
I wanna be free and not feel guilty
What devilish thoughts from your angel
What wicked thoughts from your angel
Can only do this thing by half
I've already wandered down the road too far
I've seen you too with straying eyes
Why can't we admit what we both realise?
I wanna be free to be with him
I wanna be free to tell you everything
I wanna be free and not feel guilty
Such devilish thoughts from an angel
What wicked thoughts from your angel
If you give me some rope I will show you
If you give me space I'll be eternally faithful
I'm not intending to throw it away
But if you can try to read the signs
I wanna be free to be with him
I wanna be free to tell you everything
I wanna be free and not feel guilty
What wicked thoughts from your angel
What devilish thoughts from your angel
