

Eyes Pried Open

Scars of Life

I ask myself how can you walk with him when you know Im here How can I watch you move on with your life just take me away...

My eyes are pryed open to see the way this hell can make me break
my eyes are pryed open
I know your gone, Im here I'll stay, what for to be your slave My god..

I ask myself if you took pity on me and thats why your here with all the scars you left upon my skin just take them away

My eyes are pryed open.. NOW!
