

Sometimes I wish that I could be your mind unscarred
I envy that you don't know what its like to be destroyed

I've made the chains undone
but I don't feel complete a puzzle with a missing piece
I hate what I've become..

Sanctify

Sometimes I wish that I could be your eyes so blind
To look away from a world that forces you aside

I've made the chains undone
but I don't feel complete
a puzzle with a missing piece
I hate what I've become..

At last my eyes have opened You're the cancer I've removed You should have given me one more chance to prove my worth to you

I have worth,I have worth ,WORTH!

Sanctify..

Sometimes I wish that I could be your lips so clean to keep my mouth shut and not say all these words I didn't mean

I've made the chains undone
but I don't feel complete
a puzzle with a missing piece
I hate what I've become..
