

Crazy For You

Scars on 45

I'm sure I get under your skin
For I've tried almost everything
To catch your attention tonight
But you just turn a blind eye
Turn a blind eye

But I only wish I had something to give
So I'd stop aimlessly wandering
Maybe someday soon you'll know that

Every single word that you say
Every little thing that you do
Hits like a hurricane
When I'm secretly crazy for you
Darling every time when you leave
You're making me feel so blue
Hiding my heart away
Cos I'm secretly crazy for you
I'm secretly crazy for you

Ooooh

I've tried to declare how I feel
Through flowers and cards
Surrounded in mystery
I could shout from the top of my lungs
But the cat's got my tongue
The cat's got my tongue

But I only wish I had someone to tell
But I'm still confined by the walls that I build myself
Maybe some day soon you'll know that

Every single word that you say
Every little thing that you do
Hits like a hurricane
When I'm secretly crazy for you
Darling every time when you leave
You're making me feel so blue
Hiding my heart away
Cos I'm secretly crazy for you
I'm secretly crazy for you

Oooh

I only wish I had someone to tell
But I'm still confined by the walls that I build myself
How in the hell can I make you see that

Every single word that you say
Every little thing that you do
Hits like a hurricane
When I'm secretly crazy for you
Darling every time when you leave
You're making me feel so blue
Hiding my heart away
Cos I'm secretly crazy for you

Oh I'm secretly crazy for you
Oh I'm hopelessly crazy for you
