

I'm sick of the silence
I shake as I give my point of view
I'll wait till your head's lost
And trap the blame right back on you

Why won't you believe me?
Because I keep staring at my shoes
I try to move closer
And open the floodgate locked on you

Baby please,
Don't say it won't get better
Don't say I'm all you found
Don't say it can't get better
You scare me out of town

And when all this comes undone
I'll be standing by
So don't let it play on your mind
(2x)

When all this comes undone
I'll be waiting

Don't say it won't get better
Don't say I'm all you found
Don't say it can't get better
You scare me out of town

I'm sick of the silence
I shake as I give my point of view
I'll wait till your head's lost
And trap the blame right back on you

Baby please,
Don't say it won't get better
Don't say I'm all you found
Don't say it can't get better
You scare me out of town

I'm sick of the silence
I shake as I give my point of view
