

Dictator

Scars on Broadway

Oh, I don't need a dictator to control me
Oh, I don't need an invader to destroy me

War is coming
Soldiers marching
God is falling
(Your politics will never corrupt me)
War is coming
Soldiers marching
God is dying
(Your politics will never corrupt me)

Oh, I don't need a fake savior to accuse me
Oh, I don't need a crusader to convert me

War is coming
Soldiers marching
God is falling
(Your politics will never corrupt me)
War is coming
Soldiers marching
God is dying
(Your politics will never corrupt me)

Your politics, your politics
Your politics will never correct me
Your politics, your politics
Your politics will never corrupt me

Your politics, your politics
Your politics will never correct me
Your politics, your politics
Your politics will never corrupt me

War is coming (Your politics, your politics)
Soldiers marching (Your politics will never correct me)
God is falling (Your politics, your politics)
God is dying (Your politics will never corrupt me)

Oh, I don't need a dictator
Oh, I don't need an invader
Oh, I don't need a crusader
Oh, I don't need a dictator

Your politics, your politics
Your politics will never correct me
Soldiers marching (Your politics, your politics)
War is coming (Your politics will never corrupt me)
