

Dream Again

Scatman John

Beauty is strolling on the shore,
Palm trees swaying in the winds of time,
Imagine as you walk along the sand,
Only the moment living in your mind,
Listen to the waves breaking like thunder,
No wonder there's peace in your heart,
It's easy, it's as easy as love,
A gift to us from heaven above,
You can live again when everything you know,
Is blown away by the gentle wind,
Cause happiness is the freedom you feel,
Looking up to the blue sky everything's real

Life is breathing set your soul free,
As you walk with the temple of reality,
Cause happiness is the freedom you feel,
Looking up to the blue sky everything's real,
You can live again when everything you know,
Is blown away by the gentle wind,
Thank you in case your brother of mine,
As we all walk together in the sands of time
