

Everyday

Scatman John

Hey you la la la
Hey you la la la

(Scatting by Scatman John)

Hey you la la la
(Scatting by Scatman John)

You hear me scatting or singing a theme
I move all over the scene
My reputation is squeaky but clean
I think you know what I mean

I get so starry eyed, sometimes I wanna cry
Girl I need you here by my side

GIRLS: Everyday...
I need your love, now you're fading away
Everyday...
What can I say when I want you to stay?

GIRLS: Hey you la la la
Is it true, I want you every day?
Hey you la la la
Is it true, I need you every day?

JOHN & GIRLS: Hey you la la la

JOHN: I saw your sunlight, your hopes and your dreams
Were shining there in your eyes
And with your fire, and my desire
We'd take the world by surprise

Love is the only thing, that's worth remembering
Girl I offered you the whole world

GIRLS: Everyday...
I need your love, now you're fading away
Everyday...
What can I say when I want you to stay?

GIRLS: Hey you la la la
(Scatting by Scatman John)
Is it true, I want you every day?
Hey you la la la
(Scatting by Scatman John)
Is it true, I need you every day?

GIRLS: I don't want anybody
And all I want is you
I want to hold you every day
In any way you make my dreams come true

JOHN & GIRLS: Everyday...
I need your love, now you're fading away
Everyday...
What can I say when I want you to stay?

GIRLS: Hey you la la la
(Scatting by Scatman John)
Is it true, I want you every day?
Hey you la la la
(Scatting by Scatman John)
Is it true, I need you every day?

Hey you la la la
JOHN: Hey you, la la la la la la la la la...

Hey you la la la
(Scatting by Scatman John)

GIRLS: Everyday...
