

We've got our fingers on your pulse and were waiting for your hearts to speed up and start racing with ours.
Its not so hard. No its not too much to ask for.
Were just moving faster than you.
This is the part where well tell you we wont stop now.
We wont slow down no.
We've come this far. This is who we are.

Just ask us and well tell you.
We knew just what we were doing.
Maybe it was wrong.

Alright so were lying to you.
Were just dying to prove we know exactly what were trying to do
Don't get this wrong.
No misleading phrases are the bricks that we pave with.
And oh we just want to burn at a brighter orange than all the f ires built before us.
You know well set this off. You know that we are.

Just ask us and well tell you.
We knew just what we were doing all along.
Just ask us and well tell you.
We knew just who we were fooling.
Maybe it was wrong.

We never said that this would be the picture of.
Perfection is fading. Fast fleeting is never what we needed it to be.
Why cant you see these and leave this one up to me?
We knew what we were doing all along.

Just ask us and well tell you.
We knew just what we were doing all along.
Just ask us and well tell you.
We knew just who we were fooling.
Maybe it was wrong.

We've got our fingers on your pulse and were waiting.
