

Distance

Schiller

I'm caught in the midst of your caution
You breathe and I exhale
If there's one thing I would clarify
One little thing I would justify
Is my love for you
My love for you

I can go the distance
I can be your choice
I will be your medicine
Just when you need more
If loving is your target
Then aim yourself at me
Cause I can go the distance
If you believe
If you believe
