Sleepy Storm

On the way with bow and arrow Try to find this thing to shoot Be on the hunt with bow and arrow It''s a very different trip Dangerous but necessary Yes I know The ice is too thin to walk on Yes I know The path too narrow to walk on

Sleepy storm Where is your beating heart today Hey sleepy storm Would I choose to walk or stay

Sleepy storm Where is your beating heart today Hey sleepy storm Would I choose to walk or stay

On my way with bow and arrow To be on the safe side Until I lost sight of the land Far into the night Be on the hunt with bow and arrow With bow and arrow Shall I find your hiding place Yes I know The ice is too thin I walk on Yes I know The path too narrow I walk on

Sleepy storm Where is your beating heart today Hey sleepy storm Would I choose to walk or stay Schiller
