

Cheating Myself

School Boy Humor

We'll sing just a little bit louder,
And we won't stop till she can't handle it
We'll sing just a little bit slower
So she'll hang on to every single word

Over these past few years I feel like I've been cheating myself
I'm working hard all the time
You take the easy way out

Over these past few years I've tasted who you're going to be
Candy coated on top
But so bitter underneath

Uh oh, uh oh
He's still watching
Oh no, oh no
She's undressing him with her eyes, wasting his time,
No, no, no (And I know that she'll never change)
And uh oh, uh oh
No one said it didn't hurt and
Everybody knows good things take a little work
So don't go giving up on the one, the one you love

Over these past few years we've driven right into a dead end
And we'll keep spinning our tires until one of us gives in
And we're approaching the question that I feel like we should ask
Should we just catch different rides, or just keep fixing the flats?

Uh oh, uh oh
He's still watching
Oh no, oh no
She's undressing him with her eyes, wasting his time,
No, no, no (And I know that she'll never change)
And uh oh, uh oh
No one said it didn't hurt and
Everybody knows good things take a little work
So don't go giving up on the one, the one you love

We'll sing just a little bit louder
And we won't stop till she can't handle it
We'll sing just a little bit slower
So she'll hang on to every single word

So close your eyes girl, and tell me what you see
The lives that we've created, were all because of me
So listen closely girl, cause our future is at stake
The reason we are ending is because I give, you take

Close your eyes, and tell me what you see
A problem that's unchanging, a past that's haunting me

Uh oh, uh oh
He's still watching
Oh no, oh no
She's undressing him with her eyes, wasting his time,
No, no, no (a past that's haunting me)
And uh oh, uh oh

No one said it didn't hurt and
Everybody knows good things take a little work
So don't go giving up on the one, the one you love,
The one you love
The one you love
The one you love
