

Summer Camp

School Boy Humor

Two long years
we made it through anguish and love
it was just me and you
as we sit here and talk I can see through your eyes the love that you had is gone to my surprise

And my tears won't lie they're screaming your name I could never show this pain I hope you the best I never had how could life ever get this bad

You feel no remorse for words that were said seeing you with him is the only thing I dread I want to feel your warmth and feel your touch why am I so cold?
why does this hurt this much?

Goodbye...
