Children Of The Night

Schoolyard Heroes

They said we'd never make it out of here alive
Our wicked bodies melted right before their eyes
And everything you touch shall be destroyed
Everything you love is crushed and broken

The children of the night
Your pretty skin will soon decay
There's no one waiting for you
The children of the night

Lalalalalalalalalalalala

This curse on both our families
You're a creature born without a name
I'll call you pain, I'll call you shame
Or maybe vengeance wont you tell me tell me

Everything you touch shall be destroyed
Everything you love is crushed and broken

Your pretty skin will soon decay
There's no one waiting for you
The children of the night
