

Dawn Of The Dead

Schoolyard Heroes

It's the dawn of the dead
I think you heard me right
Evil corpses rising from the grave
The dead will walk tonight
They're gonna want your bones
They're gonna want your skulls
They're gonna want everything you've got
Are you willing to give it up
It's all the same

It's the dawn of the dead
It's the dawn of the dead
It's the dawn of the dead

And the forces of evil marched on
It goes like this
But it was not over yet

It's the dawn of the dead
I think you heard me right
Evil corpses rising from the grave
The dead will walk tonight
They're gonna want your bones
They're gonna want your skulls
They're gonna want everything you've got
Are you willing to give it up?
It's all the same

It's the dawn of the dead
It's the dawn of the dead
It's the dawn of the dead
