Schoolyard Heroes

Don't try to stop me
I know not what I do
Am I forsaken
What I'm about to do
It takes some pressure
Not peer or lack of strain
It takes a shovel
Tormented souls awake

My bleeding heart will pay for actions I'm about to make
My bleeding heart will pay
This pain I brought upon myself and nothings haunting me
This pain is hunting me
At night I stay up late I'm praying that this curse will break

Their curse upon me please
I just don't understand
The rules set forward
Conquer my loneliness
I lay here bleeding
Seeping from inside out
Please Lord forgive me
I know not what I've done.

My bleeding heart will pay for actions I'm about to make
My bleeding heart will pay
This pain I brought upon myself and nothings haunting me
This pain is hunting me
At night I stay up late I'm praying that this curse will break

I stand here marked
Their souls unearthed
And this is just beginning
My time is up
But I'm so young
I'm on my knees and waiting.
