

Serial Killers Know How To Party

Schoolyard Heroes

Serial Killers
Know how to party
Serial Killers
Know how to party

Leave your name and number sewn into my skin
It feels so strange
Scream until your lungs are burning

Come with me
I'll burn your heart in effigy
Your blood runs cold
I read it in your chromosomes

Your screams could raise the dead, but no one listens.
You're twisted on the floor,
Bleeding and screaming for more
A heart shaped wound that proves you're mine...

Serial Killers
Know how to shake it.
Serial Killers
Know how to party.

Everything will fall apart just like we planned it
Write to me a death threat, I'm your teenage sweetheart.

Your screams could raise the dead, but no one listens.
You're twisted on the floor,
You're bleeding and screaming for more.
A heart-shaped wound that proves you're mine.

We thrive in altitudes of hell and places I can't speak of,
Your screams could raise the dead.
You lock your lips and sell the key to please these ugly harlots.
And no one's listening.
You wanted more.

Your screams could raise the dead,
But no one listens.
You're twisted on the floor,
Bleeding and screaming for more.
A heart-shaped wound that proves you're mine

Tell me a story of whores and deception
Routine vaccination
With lethal injection.
You're dead.
