

Violence Is All The Rage

Schoolyard Heroes

Let me introduce you to your nightmare
Jet black a sparkle in her eyes
Neither girl nor a woman but a demon in the flesh now
Blood red her lips are homicide

You set it to burn. You set it to life.
You're screaming out, but no one's listening
We're burning alive. We're burning tonight.
Inside your wicked heart's still beating

I want you

Lie to me tonight
Oh my pretty one
Your falling in love, your falling in love
It's tearing me up, your falling in...

You're saying everything I want to hear
Poison words are dripping in my ear
Blood thirsty, speaking tongues of deception
I can tell when you hold me near

Your innocent lines, your violent eyes
Your hiding diamonds in your pockets
You sever the lines, you sever the ties
Darling, there's no way to stop you now

I want you

Lie to me tonight
Oh my pretty one
Your falling in love, your falling in love
It's tearing me up, your falling in...

The dirtiest smiles, caressing our eyes
We're coming back for all your children
We're burning alive
We're burning tonight
We're screaming out, but no one's listening

I want you

Lie to me tonight
Oh my pretty one
Your falling in love, your falling in love
It's tearing me up, your falling in love
