

Somewhere

Scissor Sisters

All the jagged lives
All the dotted eyes
Tiny like a white lie
Takes someone to know
Takes someone who cares
That's the way I believe
Like a neon prayer
Straight line to heaven
Are you there?

Extraordinary lives
Keep crashing and tumbling by
Somewhere there's a sky for only me
Diamonds in disguise
Hiding like forgotten days
All these tears of mine will fly away

I can see for miles
I can sleep for days
Everything you save me
Only someone to hold
You're only someone to share
To see the things that you miss
Remember when you're scared
Straight like a Christian
I'll be there

Extraordinary lives
Keep crashing and tumbling by
Somewhere there's a sky for only me
Diamonds in disguise
Hiding like forgotten days
All these tears of mine will fly away

We're only turning around
Oh why
Turning ourself around
We're only turning around
Oh why
Turning our love around
We're only turning around
Oh why
Turning yourself around
We're only turning around
Oh why
Turning my love around

Extraordinary life
Tumbling by
Somewhere there's a sky for only me
Diamonds in disguise
All these tears of mine will fly away
