

The Only One

Scooter

The only one I know, has come to take me away
The only one I know, is mine when she stitches me

This one's for the masses I'm calling you stand clear at the doors please

Welcome Can't wait for the day to be done we rock to the rhythm and drum the sunroof's up, the windows down

Move on! cause I wanna see all the massive on the stage it's gonna be impressive we travel with the speed of sound

It's the ride you decide you will never compromise we analyse the session get the lesson, if you dare

The only one I know, has come to take me away
The only one I know, is mine when she stitches me

ladies without gentlemen, this is the introduction!

Yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah

Listen
Nobody's gonna bring us down the louder the better we sound you won't believe what's up tonight

take me
you know it's all about the chicks the reason we're still in the mix I see you in the V.I.P.

No control, let it roll tonight I'll take your soul I confess no regrets as we progress now

The only one I know, has come to take me away
The only one I know, is mine when she stitches me argh, we are justified and we are ancient right!

Yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah

The only one I know
The only one I know
