Scorpions

Heroes don't cry Heroes don't cry Standing here in front of you A wave of joy and sadness fills the room Your soul has crashed into a wall Your world just broke to pieces after all The days of your life Leave the world standing outside But you find the strength for a smile Because heroes like you wouldn't cry Heroes don't cry Heroes don't cry The judge decided it's your right To wake up from the dream of your life The curtain is about to fall No need for words, your eyes just say it all The days of your life Leave the world standing outside You find the strength for a smile Because heroes like you wouldn't cry Heroes don't cry There are days of your life Leave the world standing outside You find the strength for a smile Because heroes like you wouldn't cry Heroes don't cry I can't forget that afternoon So many times I've been thinking of you I'm happy that you've decided to live And what touches me most is what you said Heaven can wait, can wait, can wait, ...