Your Light

Scorpions

When you're feeling lost and blue when there is no love for you you'll find him and it's allright, allright.

When you're feeling down and low when you've got no place to go and when none smiles "hello" he's by your side, you know

When you're getting deaf and blind when you draw one leg behind and when you finally gonna lose your mind it's allright, allright

'cos he is by your side 'cos he will be your guide 'cos he will be your light and you're not alone.
