

Friends And Foes

Scott Matthew

There is a family that prays 'cause we've turned out this way and a sickly sect condones saying that we've turned out wrong and they twist and they turn all the truth that we have learned in the darkest of oceans there's light

And to all our friends and foes simply all you need to know to love is to live to receive is to give so saddle beside me sing and celebrate changing from the darkest of moments to light

In the darkest of oceans there's light
