

Let Me Go

Scott Stapp

Tell me friend is this forgiving
Tell me friend are you believing
Tell me friend if it's worth the fight

So please let me go
So please let me go Let me go

What's the use of our deceiving
What's the use so stop retreating
We are lost and all our hope is gone

So please let me go
So please let me go
Let me go

So please let me go
So please let me go
Let me go

Once a boy I was forgiven
Now a man I'm lucky living
Always know our memories will live on

We'll live on
We'll live on
We'll live on
We'll live on

So please let me go
So please let me go
Let me go

So please let me go
So please let me go
Let me go
Let me go
