

New Day Coming

Scott Stapp

Head in my hands,
Time slipping away,
Like falling sand.
Till it's bleeding daylight.
The rope pulled tight.
Now I'm standing still
On the edge of a knife.
Just ready for a fight...
Just ready for a fight...

I'll get back up for good this time.
I ain't coming down!
I'll get back up 'cause my whole life,
I was lost, but now I'm found.
It's the dawn of a new day, new day.
It's the dawn of a new day coming.
It's the dawn of a new day, new day.
It's the dawn of a new day!

Lay down your pain,
Cut it from your heart,
Let it fall like rain,
Like tears in the dust.
There in the dark,
There's a raging fire looking for a spark,
Let it light you up..
Let it light you up...

I'll get back up for good this time.
I ain't coming down!
I'll get back up 'cause my whole life,
I was lost, but now I'm found.
It's the dawn of a new day, new day.
It's the dawn of a new day coming.
It's the dawn of a new day, new day.
It's the dawn of a new day!
